STONE & THOMAS.

FINE CARPETINGS!

$25 A DAY is the price paid every day by Messrs. Arnold, Constable & Co., of New York, for their carpet designer. It takes a good man these days to earn that much. But if you see the beautiful new designs and colorings this man has gotten out this season you'll agree with Messrs. A., C. & Co. that he is a good man and earns his money. We have made arrangements with Messrs. Arnold, Constable & Co. for selling their goods in this city. We would like every lady in this city and vicinity to pass judgment on this great showing of Carpets.

Body Brussels Carpets at 85c, $1 and $1 25.
Velvet Brussels Carpets at 85c and $1 00.
Milton Velvet Carpets at 98c, $1 25 and $1 40.

Transfer Recorded.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record a transfer of real estate as follows: February 3, by Elizabeth Mossburg to Susan Miller, for $900, lot 11, on the north side of Charles street.

Kyle Daub.

Yesterday at St. Luke's church Rev. Jacob Brittingham, the rector, united in marriage Mr. Robert W. Kyle and Miss Emma B. Daub, both of this city. Their numerous friends will extend the most sincere congratulations.

Her Seventeenth.

Miss Lydia Dyson celebrated her seventeenth birthday yesterday evening. She was surprised by a large party of friends at her home on North Wabash street, and all had an enjoyable time with music, dancing and other amusements. Supper was served at a seasonable hour, and all left with pleasant remembrances.

Funeral of Mr. A. Baron.

Yesterday afternoon Abram Baron, whose death was announced in the INTELLIGENCER, was buried from his late home on Forty-sixth street. Steubenville commandery, K. T., accompanied by many Wheeling Knights and headed by the Opera House band, attended in a body and the beautiful services of the order were used. The funeral was largely attended by other friends also.

Sad Death of a Young Man.

Mr. Gus A. Lingaman, son of the late Henry Lingaman, and stepson of Mr. W. B. Howell, died last evening after a tedious illness of consumption. The family recently returned to this city from St. Louis to gratify the desire of the young man that he might die in the home of his childhood. He was not quite twenty-one years old, and his death will be sincerely regretted by a wide circle of relatives and friends.

An Attractive Program.

The following very fine program has been announced for the entertainment to be given at the Fourth street M. E. church this evening:

Ariel Mandolin and Banjo Club.
Reading—Miss Ella Veith Solo—Mr. Will Day
Recitation—Mrs. John Scheibele Solo—Mrs. Bertha Bauer
Recitation—Mrs. Zoe Hastings Solo—Mrs. Robert Darrach
Solo—Mrs. Harry Travis
Piano Solo—Miss Loretta McManahan

First Presbyterian Church.

The services are continuing with unabated and increasing interest from day to day. Dr. Alexander preached again last evening with great acceptance and power, setting forth the teachings and principles of the gospel in such a vivid and logical manner, as to reach the hearts and consciences of those who heard the words. He will preach his fourth sermon this evening, and will be followed on Friday evening by Rev. R. R. Bigger, of the Third church of this city.

OPENING CONCERT TO-NIGHT.

The New Music House of Milligan, Wilkin & Co. to Open.

At the magnificent new music house of Milligan, Wilkin & Co. this evening an opening concert will be given. The new establishment at 1138 to 1142 Market street has been beautifully fitted up, and the opening this evening promises to be one of the notable events of the season. The following program will be rendered:

BETTER BUSINESS NOW.

Passenger and Freight Traffic on Railroads is Better.

THE WESTERN PASSENGER TRAFFIC is Especially Notable for the Improvement of Late—An Increase Over the Volume of Business of 1893 and 1894—A Theatre Train on Saturday is Wanted—Other News of the Railroads.

"Passenger business is looming up in something like its old time style," said Traveling Passenger Agent Fred. B. Sankey, of the Pennsylvania lines, yesterday afternoon. "Our western business out of Pittsburgh yesterday was heavier than we have experienced for six months, and I find there is great activity in prospective business, so much so that I expect the roads will have a very successful season." Passenger Agent Tomlinson, who was present, corroborated this statement, and said that locally there is a prospect for a big passenger business to the west.

Freight people also say that business in that department is better at the present time than at the same period in 1894 and 1893. The latter year, in particular, was a disastrous one for the railroad people; in fact business was so poor that rock bottom was reached and there was nothing possible but an improvement in 1894. Now the news that '95 bids fair to outstrip '94 is received with pleasure by the railroad people.

The Pennsylvania company has decided to open up Rock Point, the summer resort and picnic grounds located three miles west of Pittsburgh, and Passenger Agent Sankey has already booked the grounds for most of the time up to the Glorious Fourth. Steubenville will send a picnic crowd up there, and perhaps a crowd may be worked up to go from Wheeling during the season. The grounds were not in use last season, giving the shrubbery time to grow, so that they are now in better shape than ever before.

Many Wheeling people would like to see the Baltimore & Ohio or Pennsylvania run Saturday theatre trains from Wheeling to Pittsburgh and return next season. If Wheeling people could return after the evening performance such a service on either road would be liberally patronized.

A HOWLING SUCCESS.

Mr. L. L. Scheible Opens His New Martin's Ferry Store With a Banquet.

Last night at Martin's Ferry, Mr. L. L. Scheible, the grocer who was burned out some time ago, gave a banquet and an evening's entertainment to the drummers of Wheeling and his numerous friends at his new building, corner of Hanover and Second streets, Martin's Ferry. The affair, which was a strictly stag gathering, was attended by between 150 and 200 gentlemen. The evening's programme consisted of speeches, music, vocal and instrumental, dancing, and a very fine spread of delicious viands and liquid extracts. Meister's band, the Oriental mandolin and guitar club, and a fine quartette furnished the music. One of the features of the evening was a speech by Mr. William Kirchbach, of Wheeling, and his friends pronounced the effort worthy of Demosthenes. The festivities commenced at 7:30 and continued well into the night and the only drawback was the swiftness of the evening's passage. All attending left with hopes for the success of their hospitable host and the full measure of prosperity possible for any mortal to possess.

The Modern Way commends itself to the well informed, to do pleasantly and effectually what was formerly done in the crudest manner and disagreeably as well. To cleanse the system and break up colds, headaches and fevers without unpleasant after effects, use the delightful liquid laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs.

WALTERS & McCLUSKEY will repair and repaint Carriages and Wagons very clean. Corner Market and Twenty-fourth streets.

SOLID COMFORT—THE HUB CLOTHIERS.

The Solid Comfort

Of a well made, perfect fitting Suit of Clothes gives double value to it. Ready-made Clothes can be had that possess these qualities. That did not use to be so, but the art of manufacturing Suits has advanced to that point now. Our manufacturers furnish us with perfectly formed suits in every size man may want. It's well known that Readymade Clothes can be bought much cheaper than made-to-order kind. The saving in the time of making up enables them to be sold at such prices. So it's only natural to suppose that far better goods can be obtained in Readymade Clothes, especially our kind, than the made-to-order kind at the same price. Our prices are always lower than the same goods can be bought for elsewhere. We take pains to make them so. A comparison will prove us right.
